A FEW WORDS FROM...

FUNKY BISCUIT, BOCA RATON

It is with a heavy heart and great sadness that we announce that as of September 1 we will be closing our doors until further notice. Monday August 31 was our last waltz for the foreseeable future. [The final Monday Night Biscuit Jam featured Albert Castiglia, JP Soars, Jeff Lloyd, Mark Telesca and Richie Schmidt.] We are very proud of not only what we have accomplished over the last nine years, but also what we have done safely and responsibly over the last five months in the face of a global pandemic. We fought the good fight and now it's time for us to rest. This is not the end of our story... just a new season! We wish you all love and peace, and look forward to seeing you again soon at The Funky Biscuit!

SUNSHINE JAZZ ORGANIZATION

Your families, and your Sunshine Jazz family, have certainly never experienced a situation like we have endured since mid-March 2020. We hope you're staying safe and learning how to cope during this very extreme health and civil rights crisis. So much is happening and the guidelines seem to change daily, but it seems music has proven to be among our greatest healers. We know that jazz invigorates and soothes the mind, heart, body and soul. We are all trying to stay strong – please stay safe and healthy. Peace and love from your Sunshine Jazz Family!

KELSEY THEATER, LAKE PARK

Due to Covid19 concerns across the country, we've had to make some very tough decisions. Most of our shows within the next two months have been canceled or postponed. Please check our website, or email us for additional information. Public safety is our number one concern and we are abiding by all government regulations, but please understand that we have done everything in our power to continue with business as usual. We're still making regular updates so please follow our Facebook page and website. Be safe out there and we'll see you on the other side!

IBC UPDATE

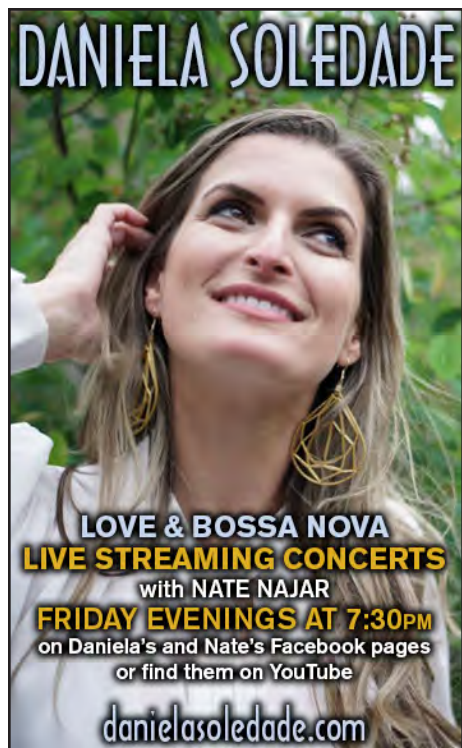

MICHAEL FREEMAN
CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF DIRECTORS
THE BLUES FOUNDATION

“Our Board voted unanimously to cancel this year’s International Blues Challenge and look ahead to the first quarter of 2022 when we can hopefully come together in person to celebrate the blues via this signature Blues Foundation event.

Leading up to this decision, we wrote expanded rules that would have allowed our affiliated blues societies to choose their challengers outside of a live judged event. In response, many have reported back to us that they and the musicians in their communities are not enthusiastic about proceeding. It has become clear to us that without full engagement of artists, industry, blues society leadership, and fans, we could not produce an event with the musical diversity and quality you have come to expect. After much discussion and careful consideration of all options, including a virtual IBC, we universally agreed that this special and unique Blues Foundation program is meant to be experienced live and that it would not be safe or feasible to attempt to produce it this winter in the midst of a pandemic. The Board concurrently voted to suspend nominations and selection of Keeping the Blues Alive Award recipients until the fall of 2021, with plans to honor those selected during the 2022 IBC Week, where they can be celebrated in person with their family and friends surrounding them.

We recognize that the International Blues Challenge has grown in scope and recognition throughout the world, and we do not want to leave a vacuum in its absence this year. Please be assured that we will be using the time and resources normally directed towards the IBC to develop unique content and virtual activities for this winter. This is not intended to replace the IBC, but to give the blues world and our membership a way to remain connected as we all continue to heal through this pandemic that has uprooted so many of our plans and our lives.

While we will miss coming together on Beale Street this January, we are hopeful that open travel, live music, and the ability to congregate in-person will quickly be safe again, and I encourage you to save the dates for the 37th International Blues Challenge: February 1–5, 2022.” (edited for length)
